Public Courtesy of the Floor:

Kathy Same inquired about the culvert that was supposed to be put in neighbor's driveway.

Supervisor Stokes responded: Superintendent Davis determined, based on the grade, they could not dig deep enough to cover the culvert.

Councilperson Corpin expressed his concern over the assessor's, increasing the assessed values on certain properties. Mr. Corpin stated, what message are we sending to the residents of the town who are trying to improve their property's and as a result their taxes are increased.

New Business- Councilperson Corpin feels that the board needs to be stronger on controlling the speed at which cars come through the town and the trucks using their jake brakes. Mr. Corpin suggested a letter from the Supervisor to the police dept.
