Madison County Bicentennial Commission Releases Commemorative Poster

WAMPSVILLE—Madison County residents have one more week to buy the commemorative poster from last year's County Bicentennial Celebration, currently, on sale in nine different stores across the county.

A strong public response in December led to a second printing of the 11 x 17 glossy poster, which is suitable for framing. The poster includes the logos painted on barns all over Madison County as well as some photographs from bicentennial events, including the Town Ball tourney, the Fly-in Breakfast at Hamilton Airport, and the kick-off celebration in Oneida last January. A historic picture of Chittenango Falls and several pictures of historic buildings are also included.

Proceeds from the sale of the posters will benefit ongoing Heritage Trail projects in Madison County.

The poster, which costs $3, is available until the end of January at the following stores:

- Canastota: Community Pharmacy
- Cazenovia: Critz Farms; and Beehive Gallery and Candle Studio
- Chittenango: Land of Oz and Ends
- Earlville: Corey's Hardware
- Hamilton: Colgate Bookstore
- Morrisville: Morrisville State College Bookstore
- Nelson: Nelson Farms Store
- Oneida: Oneida Floral and Gifts
