How Media Messages Impact Young People

Wednesday, September 12th, 2012

7:00 to 8:30 p.m., Cazenovia Public Library
100 Albany Street, Cazenovia

This workshop will examine young people's media use and their exposure to media as well as the importance of questioning media. The workshop will examine how the media addresses the topics of body image, alcohol use and violence. Attendees will be encouraged to increase communication with youth, increase their awareness of what types of media messages youth are exposed to, and gain insight into how to raise media literate children.

This workshop will be facilitated by Tina Louis,
Youth Development Specialist, Madison County Youth Bureau.
