

FOUR-COUNTY FAIR

Onondaga

Cortland

Madison

Chenango

DeRuyter, Aug. 25=26=27=28

It Sounds Big, It is Big, It is Bound to be Bigger

DeRuyter is just the place for such a fair and why not? There has not been a real genuine celebration in this town this summer and it is high time for the people to grab the fair idea and make the most of it. Interest is increasing every day and everything is booming. Of course you are all animated and you ought to be. Don't back down now. It's too late, for it is bound to go and go hard.

OFFICERS IN CHARGE

The acceptance of some of the officers in charge has been late in reaching us, but we have the list completed and it stands as follows:

Horses, Dr. F. A. Sherwood	Sheep and Swine, Frank Blair	Dairy Hall, Fred Briggs	Domestic Hall, F. M. Russell
Cattle, J. W. Coley	Poultry and Pet, D. F. Taylor	Vegetable Hall, Fred Briggs	Floral Hall, S. D. Griffith

These Directors will have entire charge of their departments, with Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents at their service

The Special Premiums are Perfect Wonders

Want to Get Married? Now is Your Chance. Come to the Fair With Your License

A $35.00 Bedroom Suit will be your wedding present if you will be married on the platform at the fair. Send your application in at once, for the first one entering will be the lucky drawer of this premium. The suite will be on exhibition in I. E. Smith's window. Do not let this call go past unheeded. All the guests are expected to bring presents, of course.

Quite a sum of money has already been contributed for the prizes in the School Department. Professor Fuller of our High School is working hard to make this department one of the best at the Fair.

A Great Exhibition of Live Stock, Farm Implements, Household and Dairy Products, Fruits, Vegetables, Flowers, Plants, &c. A Strictly Modern Exposition From Four Counties Rich in Resources That Tend to Call Out Those Exhibits Which Both Interest and Instruct.

It is going to be a Fine Annual Picnicking Time and you will get your money's worth in enjoyment, comfort and amusement. Try it and see!
