

ARC Recycling Center 25th Anniversary Celebration

L-R: Michel DeBottis Esq., James V. Rafté is congratulated by Chairman of the Solid Waste and Recycling Committee Jim Goldstein. The Education Center/Scale-house and Solar Power station were named for Rafté on June 26, 2015 during the ARC's 25th Anniversary Celebration. Rafté has served Madison County for 48 years. Photo by Sharon A. Driscoll

L-R: Robert Kuiper, former Board Chairman, Assemblyman Bill Magee, Mike Hulland, Director of Enterprise for the Arc Madison Cortland, Ray Lewandowski, former Executive Director of the ARC, Michel DeBottis, Esq., James V. Rafté, Marcia Rafté, Anthony Zazzara, Chairman James Goldstein, Director James A. Zecca, Back row L-R: Russ Hammond, Operations Manager, Ken Stone, Manager of the ARC Recycling Center and Alex Stepanski. Photo by Sharon A. Driscoll

L-R: Jeffrey Campanaro, Richard Smith and Ken Stone (r) were congratulated by Assemblyman Bill Magee on June 26, 2015 for their many years of service to the Arc of Madison Cortland. K. Stone manager of the ARC Recycling Center plans to retire at the end of 2015 after 21 years of outstanding leadership and dedication

Director James Zecca (L) praised Ray Lewandowski, former Executive Director of the Arc of Madison Cortland for his leadership in the field of developmental disabilities locally and nationally. It was under Ray's leadership that the Alternatives Recycling Center opened 25 years ago with the purpose of providing jobs for people with and without disabilities in Madison County. Photo by Sharon A. Driscoll