

The Madison County Youth Bureau and Catholic Charities of Oneida/Madison Counties present

Look Beneath the Surface: FROM VICTIM TO SURVIVOR

November 3, 2016

9:30 a.m. registration to 2:00 p.m., Lunch Included

Rusty Rail, 3231 Seneca Turnpike, Canastota

Registration Deadline is 10/28/16.

Go to www.helpatriskcc.org or fax attached form to 724-5318.

For questions contact the Madison County Youth Bureau at 366-2574.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Barbara Amaya is a survivor, advocate, and award winning author of her memoir titled “Nobody’s Girl - A Memoir of Lost Innocence, Modern Day Slavery and Transformation”. At age 12 she was trafficked first in Washington DC and then on the streets of New York for over a decade. Barbara is a sex trade survivor and advocate that wants to share her message of overcoming adversity and hope, so that others may heal from being victims to survivors of human trafficking.

\ Copies of Barbara’s book “Nobody’s Girl - A Memoir of Lost Innocence, Modern Day Slavery and Transformation” will be available for sale at the event.**

A panel of local professionals will take place in the afternoon that will focus on a discussion of our local risk and resources to address these issues.

Who Should Attend: Law enforcement, health and human service providers, medical professionals, social workers, educators, advocates, counselors, clergy.

Creating Hope. Transforming Lives

Catholic Charities
DIOCESE OF SYRACUSE
Oneida/Madison County

